

Iberostar Cozumel sits on the other side of Playa del Carmen, in the largest island in Mexico: Cozumel. This scuba diving Mecca is popular for its two magnificent reefs, Palancar and Santa Rosa Wall, one on each side of this five-star resort. With the water being so clear and the marine life being so rich, it's truly a magical underwater adventure. Cozumel also has many historical sites boasting the Mayan culture. From archeological sites to old temples, this place unfolds like a history lesson. For a little adventure, a little history and a whole lot of fun, Cozumel is the place to be in the Caribbean.

Iberostar Cozumel is more of a couple's destination. In this cozy, rustic and open-air resort, there aren't your typical standard rooms. Instead, there are little charming bungalows complete with hammocks and private little patios where guests can hang their clothes to air dry after a day at the beach. The atmosphere is like the one of a village, where camaraderie and good conversation is easy to find. There are paved pathways to everywhere, and don't be surprised if a cat or a peacock accompanies you to your destination. Iberostar

When you're on vacation, your hotel room becomes your home away from home. That's why Iberostar Cozumel takes care of having everything you're used to like plush pillows, comfortable sheets, a cozy atmosphere, even a balcony or a terrace. From standard rooms to ocean view junior suites to superior junior and presidential suites, you surely won't be homesick. Amenities range from indoor or balcony Jacuzzis, a dining and an outside sitting area complete with comfortable couch or even a swing. Plus, of course, the comforts of home like an iron board, a safe deposit box, a mini-bar, a hair dryer and satellite television. And don't forget, snacks are available 24 hours a day!

Iberostar Cozumel's dining selections are a feast for the eyes and for the stomach. This five-star all-inclusive resort boasts two a la carte restaurants plus one international buffet and one snack bar, that's really more like another giant buffet. Taste authentic Mexican food like tortilla soup and Mexico city-style tacos at El Sarape. Enjoy savory meats like top sirloin, tenderloin or rib-eye at El Cedral, the resort's steakhouse. Or sample a little bit of everything at the buffet, from fruits and salads to fish and meat to deserts and other goodies.
